Games? What? Why not?! So I found some games I could put on here and now they're up! Whenever you have some leisure time, just come on over and give 'em a try.

You may need a plugin from Macromedia, but if that's the case you will see a message on your screen pointing you to it.

Oh, one more thing. I take no responsibility for the content of these games! Just kidding - most are family friendly.
